

COMMUNITY LINKS

Our committee have worked really hard this year! We have learned all about what makes a good community and the school's role within that.

We linked with the community by planning and organising an 'iPad workshop'. This involved invited members of the community participating in child-led activities aimed at improving iPad proficiency. Great fun was had by all!

